Benders Will Try For Sweep of Series With Reapers---Giants Finally Halted

JISITORS UNABLE TO HIT HURLERS

Kelley Holds Them to Two Blows and McColl Only Grants Four.

By Ed J. Murray.

Airtight pitching with faultless support, brilliant in spots and wild ness on the part of the opposing hurlers were hig factors in South Bend's 3 to 1 and 6 to 1 victories over the Springfield bunch yester Sou day at Springbrook park.

Bashang started the early session by walking and was safe at second when Haines threw poorly to Caveney on Koehler's attempted sacrifice. Fisher did a death tap and as Donnelly looked dangerous he was transported. Tannehill cracked one at Shovlin and Bashang scored on the out. Opfergelt , who played in right in place of Grimes, was an infield out.

Donnelly Gets Homer.

In the second with two on and none down old timely blow was absent. Donnelly livened the third with a home run smash. Kelly go his second hit in the fourth but died at first. With two gone in the fift! Donnelly got a walk and came across when Tannehill tapped to left for two. Kelley's hit, Bashang's walk and Koehler's safe blow to left crowded the bases in the sixth bu Fisher fanned.

AFTERNOON GAME.

Koehler in the afternoon game got hit in the first with one gone and died trying to steal. In the same frame Spencer, first up, walked, but when Caveney hit to McColl, a double killing was staged. It was one, two, three for the Heapers in the game.)

Donnelly got a single to start the second frame and Tannehill sacrineed. Donnelly took third on a passed ball after Opfergelt tapped one back of short that Caveney Boston, 4-8; Washington, 3-2. pulled in. Beall walked and Zeiser came through with a double to the center field fence and two runs trotted across. McColl's best was a line drive that Hartle plucked.

The Benders got a couple on in the third on an error and a walk, but couldn't score. Opfergelt got a double as a starter in the fourth. but ventured too far off the bag and Dunn's throw to second nailed him. The third tally was shoved across in the fifth. Bashang with McColl out of the way walked and stole, but it was wasted for Koehler was soaked. Fisher hit one past short that Caveney knocked down, but couldn't make a throw. Donnelly's long fly to center scored Bashang.

Benders Get Two More. Opfergelt opened the sixth with a drive to Caveny and was safe when Anderson dropped the throw, Beall walked and Zeiser sacrificed.
